3Com in dealership pact with ACA

NETWORKING solutions provider 3Com has appointed ACA Pacific Technology as its master distributor in Singapore. According to 3Com, the alliance with ACA is part of the firm's attempt to ramp up its partner strategy and service initiatives in the region. Besides distributing converged networking solutions from 3Com, ACA also carries a number of other product lines including design automation, data storage and backup, document imaging, as well as business applications.
